

DEMENTIA CARE PROGRAM

CAD001: Learning Online in Health Studies

CAD003: Introduction to General Studies in Dementia in Australia

CAD002: Introduction to Effective Communication in Health Studies

CAD004: Neurospeak - Understanding the Nervous System

Foundation Units

Understanding Dementia

Models of Healthcare

CAD101: Introduction to Ageing, the Brain and Dementia

CAD103: Introduction to Dementia Services

CAD102: Introduction to Population Trends in Ageing

CAD104: Principles of Supportive Care for People with Dementia

Graduate with a Diploma of Dementia Care after 8 units

CAD201: The Biology of Ageing and Dementia

CAD203: Principles of Palliation in Dementia Care

CAD202: Preventative and Therapeutic Approaches in Dementia Care

CAD204: Effective Communication with People with Dementia and their Carers

Degree Elective 1: Introductory (100) level

Breadth Elective 1: Introductory (100) level

Degree Elective 2: Intermediate (200) level

Breadth Elective 2: Intermediate (200) level

Graduate with an Associate Degree in Dementia Care after 16 units

CAD301: Neuroscience Research in Dementia

CAD305: Qualitative Research in Aged and Dementia Care

CAD302: Advanced Topics in Neurobiology of Dementia

CAD306: Advanced Topics in Dementia Care

CAD303: The Art and Science of Clinical Trials

CAD307: Translating Evidence into Dementia Care

CAD304: Negotiated Project in Dementia

CAD308: Dementia-Friendly Societies

Graduate with a Bachelor of Dementia Care Degree after 24 units

Example Learning Pathway in Dementia Care

Units should be completed in order of difficulty commencing with foundation units (the first four units), followed by those at level 100, 200 and then 300.

Advanced standing (also known as Recognition of Prior Learning or Credit) may be granted for students who have previous qualifications at a Diploma or higher level.

For more information:

Tel: 1800 982 600
Email: Dementia.Care@utas.edu.au
www.utas.edu.au/dementia-care

For those who have completed the Understanding Dementia MOOC CAD110 Negotiated Study in Understanding Dementia can be completed as the Level 100 degree elective