The Aged Care reforms: moving from knowledge to action
21 to 24 November 2022, online

More than 18 months have passed since the Aged Care reforms were announced, during which the Sector has been extremely busy managing public health concerns while learning and adapting to policy changes. In light of the recent legislative changes and the number of Government agencies' webinars and resources that discuss the new program, now is a good time to start or continue planning for a successful transition.

Join us for 1, 2 or more sessions and be inspired and equipped to reflect on your organisation's current and future position in the Aged Care environment.

Each session will include time for Q&A.
Online only event via Zoom. Register via links below.

The new Aged Care environment: transforming beyond the reforms

Monday 21 November 2022, 12:00pm - 1:00pm
Jennene Buckley, Founding Partner, Enkindle

In this webinar, Jennene Buckley will share insights and tips to understand and navigate the context we are currently operating in with the Aged Care reforms, but also talk about wider issues in relation to workforce, digitalisation and more. Why do Aged Care providers need to approach the Aged Care reforms in a holistic and strategic way?
