

Northern Sydney Regional Forum Week

Focus on Care: Meeting the needs of older Australians

After several months of intense work on compliance, financial sustainability, and strategy planning, we would like to invite you to take a break and focus on our commitment to inclusive and quality care for older Australians.

Join us for 1, 2 or all 3 online sessions, taking place during the week of 13 - 15 June 2023.

Register via links below.

Launch of Care finders for Northern Sydney, Northern Beaches, Parramatta, Cumberland, Blacktown and Hills shire regions

Tuesday 13 June 2023, 10.00am - 11.00am AEST

Liz Foxhall and Lisa Strudwick, Care finders, Aspire4Life and Your Side Australia

The care finder program assists older people requiring more intensive assistance navigate the My Aged Care system and access aged care services, along with other supports. Learn more about eligibility requirements, when to refer and what type of services care finders can offer. This webinar will provide information about care finders in Northern Sydney, the Northern Beaches, Parramatta, Cumberland, Blacktown LGA and Hills shire.

Register Here

Measuring Quality of Care experience of older people and their Quality of Life

Wednesday 14 June 2023, 11:00am - 12:00 AEST

Dr Rachel Milte, Caring Futures Institute, Flinders University

Join Dr Rachel Milte to learn about the Quality of Care experience of older people and their Quality of Life. You will learn more about these two new domains which are now included in the QI Program in residential aged care, and will be expanded into home care as part of the new system. What are the benefits in using these instruments and how do they help service providers demonstrate the impact of their supports and service?

Register Here

A New Aged Care Assessment - focus on consumers' needs

Thursday 15 June 2023, 10:00am - 11:00am AEST

Michael Scurrah, Aspire4Life

Join Michael Schurrah to learn about Aspire4Life's experience and learnings undertaking the piloting of the new assessment program for Aged Care, including a discussion about the integrated assessment tool, classification, access, and further insights into what may possibly be anticipated in the new assessment framework.

Register Here

Who should attend Regional Forum Week?

Frontline workers, managers and leaders of home and community care organisations.

Online only event via Zoom.

Each session will include time for audience Q&A.

For more information email sectorsupport@yourside.org.au
<https://sector.yourside.org.au>

Your Side